CHAIRMANS REPORT 2017

for the year ended 31st August 2017

In 2017 the festival celebrated its 22nd year and the theme was 'Ireland You Are', which weaved its way through the full festival programme and Ireland's leading pageant companies brought the theme to life in spectacular fashion during the Festival parade. We were delighted to have Olympian Annalise Murphy lead the National Parade, personifying the theme of 'Ireland You Are', in this case a resilient, dedicated competitor on a world stage.

The principal aim of St. Patrick's Festival, since its inauguration, is to develop a major annual international festival around the national holiday over which the Irish people would stand proud. It sets out to reflect the talents and achievements of Irish people on many national and world stages, and it acts as an exciting showcase for the manifold skills of the people of Ireland, of every age and social background.

The Board were immensely proud that the Festival commissioned Irish poet and playwright Stephen James Smith to write a new poem in response to the Festival theme. The resultant piece 'My Ireland' was accompanied by a short film by Director Myles O' Reilly, arranged and mixed by Conor O'Brien (Villagers) with music by Colm Mac Con Iomaire, Loah, Saint Sister, Eithne Ní Chatháin (aka Inni-K) and Ye Vagabonds. The video piece which accompanied 'My Ireland' has been currently viewed across all Festival platforms over 400,000 times and the total reach is over 1 million people, a conversation we are enormously proud of at the time of our National celebrations.

The wider festival programme included a rich and diverse programme from large-scale, free, on-street events such as Ceili, Treasure Hunt and Big Day Out to a diverse multi-discipline programme of music, spoken word, salon talks, tours, visual arts and much more. Headline events, featuring established and emerging Irish and international artists, included literature, music, film, spoken word, Irish language events, design, visual art and more. Festival events were staged in some of Dublin's most beautiful, historic and prestigious cultural venues and spaces and the Festival's citywide animation initiative, Greening the City, illuminated the City with great success.

In line with the festival's strategic vision, a number of new projects were initiated or delivered in 2017:

- Increased investment in core events, particularly the alteration and extension to parade route and special access facilities on the route.
- Two new one-off projects in line with the Festival strategy to improve the long-term capacity of the Festival to earn income and increase sponsorship, including;
 - A new Brand Identity for the Festival, which was launched in February 2017.
 - A new Fundraising & Sponsorship Strategy.

Independent research indicates that there were over 105,000 overseas visitors at the St. Patrick's Festival in 2016. These visitors spent on average 8.8 nights in Ireland and 6.5 nights in Dublin. During the 2016 Festival, out of state visitors generated an estimated total expenditure of €73m while in Ireland, including expenditure of €51.3m while in Dublin, and circa 22 million which was spent in the rest of Ireland. We are very proud of this return and we continue to work closely with our stakeholders to develop this even further.

We are delighted to report that viewership figures and share of viewing for the Festival Parade broadcast with Festival Partners RTE were strong, with an increase in overall viewership, these figures were:

- Parade Broadcast = 405,000 (48% share for live broadcast)
- Festival Highlights Programme = 185,000

In line with the on-going importance placed on the Festival's digital platforms as part of the marketing strategy, these platforms performed strongly with increases across all social media platforms.

The Festival costs in the region of €1.8m annually and the Festival's principal funders are Failte Ireland (€1m) and Dublin City Council (€398K). Along with this the Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht fund specific cultural programming to the value of (€30K). The remainder is raised by the Festival through income generation and sponsorship and in-kind partnerships. Given the importance of raising income and sponsorship we wish to thank our existing commercial and in-kind sponsors and welcome new partnerships in line with our ambitious strategic vision.

In conclusion, on behalf of the Board I wish to express our grateful thanks to the Festivals key funders Failte Ireland, Dublin City Council and the Department of Culture, Heritage and the Gaeltacht. I also wish to thank my fellow very hardworking Board members and our CEO and committed festival team, our stakeholders, statutory agencies and audiences who together with our wonderful band of volunteers, make the festival such an enormous success each year.

The vision of the Festival is to create a distinct world-class celebration of Ireland at home and abroad. The principal aim of the Festival is to promote the celebration of Ireland and its people globally during the Irish national holiday, by presenting a unique event of world standing that is accessible to and inclusive of all cultures.

Achievements and Performance in 2017

Please see Chairman's Report for details of St. Patrick's Festival's Achievements and Performance in 2017.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

for the year ended 31 August 2017

Financial Performance against Targets

Income from all sources shown in St. Patrick's Festival Statement of Financial Activities was €1,965,383 for 2017 against expenditure of €1,946,695, resulting in a surplus of €18,688 for the year. This compares to a surplus of €10,562 in 2016.

The surplus achieved in 2017 is a result of clear communication of budgets and targets and monitoring of actual performance against budget on a monthly basis.

Historically, the Festival benefitted from the provision of office accommodation by the State but this support was removed in 2016 when the lease on the building was terminated. New accommodation has been sourced at Internet House, 26 Temple Bar, Dublin 2, which requires funding.

Income Diversification

In 2017 both income from public sources and earned income from sponsorship and box office performed strongly. The main differences between income in 2016 and 2017:

- An increased contribution from Dublin City Council of €571,000 for 2017 (€200,000 increase in core funding, €42,000 increase in additional funding for once off project, €8,000 for route extension and €38,000 for office accommodation.
- The Board commissioned 2into3 to assist in the development of a new Fundraising & Sponsorship Strategy.
 Additional resources are now in place to begin the roll out of this strategy with the clear objective of increasing earned income as a proportion of overall income.

Restricted and Unrestricted Funds

All transactions of the organisation are recorded and reported as income into or expenditure from funds, which are designated as "restricted" or "unrestricted". Income is treated as restricted where the funder has specified that it may only be used for a particular purpose. All other income is treated as unrestricted. Expenditure is treated as being made out of restricted funds to the extent that it meets the criteria specified by the funder. All other expenditure is treated as being from unrestricted funds. The balance of the unrestricted fund at the end of the year represents the assets held by the organisation for general use in the furtherance of its work. Transfers from unrestricted funds are made to meet the shortfall on restricted projects.

Principal Funding Sources

In 2017, the principle funding sources for St. Patrick's Festival were as described in the following paragraphs. Note that a detailed breakdown of major funding lines is provided in the notes to the accounts broken down as per SORP headlines.

- Fáilte Ireland €1,012,150
- Dublin City Council €571,000 (€398,000 core funding, €127,000 additional funding for once off project, €8,000 for route extension and €38,000 for office accommodation)

Reserves Policy

St. Patrick's Festival has a reserves policy which requires reserves to be maintained at a level which ensures that the festivals core activity could continue during a period of unforeseen difficulty. The level of reserves is kept under constant review through monthly financial reporting and production of annual audited accounts and a detailed budgeting review process. The strategic funding plan that the board has adopted for the organisation has targets built in to build up a greater level of reserves in the company over the coming years.

Pension

All permanent employees are entitled to membership of the company contributory pension scheme. St. Patrick's Festival's pension scheme is with New Ireland Insurance and is a defined contribution plan.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

for the year ended 31 August 2017

Important events since year end

Since year-end, our principal funder, Fáilte Ireland, has confirmed that the Festival funding will be reduced by €50,000 in 2018, with further reductions planned in 2019 and 2020.

Auditors

The auditors, Nexia Smith & Williamson, have indicated their willingness to continue in office in accordance with the provisions of Section 383(2) of the Companies Act 2014.

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities, under section 281 to section 285 of the Companies Act 2014 to keep adequate accounting records for the company.

The accounting records of the company are kept at the registered office and principle place of business at Internet House, 26-34 Temple Bar, Dublin 2.

The directors' are responsible for preparing the directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable Irish law and Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland including the accounting standards issued by the Financial Reporting Council and published by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland.

Irish Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the company at the financial year end date and of the profit or loss of the company for the financial year and otherwise comply with the Companies Act 2014.

In preparing these financial statements the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards, identify those standards and note the effect and the reasons for any material departure from those standards; and

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. Based on the knowledge and understanding of the company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Directors' Report.

The Companies Act 2014 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion, the disclosures of directors' remuneration and transactions required by sections 305 to 312 of the Act are not made. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Respective responsibilities

Responsibilities of directors for the financial statements

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement set out on page 6, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the management either intends to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (Ireland) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the IAASA's website at: https://www.iaasa.ie/Publications/ISA-700-(Ireland). This description forms part of our Auditors' report.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

for the year ended 31 August 2017

Statement of compliance

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2014 and FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" issued by the Financial Reporting Council. The company has applied the recommendations contained in Charities SORP (FRS 102) effective 1 January 2015.

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are material in relation to the company's financial statements.

Judgements in applying accounting policies and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting practice requires management to make estimates and judgements that affect the reported amounts of the assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period.

The directors do not consider that there are significant estimates made during the preparation of the financial statements.

Basis of Preparation

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

Income includes grants and sponsorship from a variety of state and municipal bodies and businesses in general. Income is also derived from the sale of grandstand seats for the festival.

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy.

Grants

Grant income from Government agencies and other sundry sources are included in the Financial Statement where entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the company, and is recognised when the company becomes unconditionally entitled to the grant.

Tangible fixed assets and depreciation

All major items of capital expenditure, including the purchase of parade floats are capitalised as fixed assets.

Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost less residual value of all tangible fixed assets over their expected useful lives.

IT & website - 33% Reducing balance Festival equipment - 25% Reducing balance

Office equipment - 15% Reducing balance

Certain items of equipment and furniture which have been vested in the company do not appear in the balance sheet as they were acquired at no cost.

Taxation

Under the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997, the company is exempt from corporation tax due to its status as a registered charity.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

for the year ended 31 August 2017

Government grants

Capital grants received and receivable are treated as deferred income and amortised to the profit and loss account annually over the useful economic life of the asset to which it relates. Revenue grants are credited to the profit and loss account when received.

Reserves

All financial reserves are regarded by the directors as unrestricted funds and are available, at the discretion of the directors, to be expended in furtherance of the objectives of the company. Such funds are currently held to finance the working capital requirements of the company.
